Our Lady of Czestochowa Catholic Church

120 Sussex Street, Jersey City, NJ 07302

Our Mission

The mission of our Parish is to reach out to all people and encourage them to join us in joyfully giving praise and glory to God; to build a Christian community that, with trust in God, embraces the future, and in doing so, is a beacon of faith, hope and love on the Jersey City waterfront.

Our History

Our Lady of Czestochowa Church, or OLC, was founded in 1911 to serve Polish immigrants in Jersey City. Today, OLC is growing and changing as it seeks to serve all those who now live in our neighborhood. The Church takes its name from a city in Poland that houses a cherished icon of the Blessed Virgin Mary. A copy of that icon is centrally located in our historic Church.

Mass Schedule

Monday – Friday: 12:30 pm (Church open from 12:00 noon to 1:15 pm)

Saturday: 5:00 pm, Sunday Vigil Mass

Note: St. Anthony of Padua, 330 Sixth Street, Jersey City, the Center for Polish Ministry in Jersey City, offers a Polish Language Mass at OLC, Sundays at 8:00 am.

Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time – August 16, 2015

FROM THE PASTOR

Dear Parishioners,

This week's gospel reading is an example of learning to see beyond the obvious. When Jesus tells the people who followed Him that "...This bread is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world," they are confused and horrified. "They argue among themselves, 'How can this man give us his flesh to eat?'" John 6:51-42 Why would anyone do this? Why would something like this be necessary?

His audience took his words literally and did not see beyond their surface meaning. Jesus was drawing a parallel between Himself and food that sustains the body. No living thing can be preserved unless proper nourishment is received, so no soul could be saved but by His death. Our salvation is purchased by Christ through the breaking of his body and the shedding of His blood. The physical act of eating the communion host and drinking the communion wine does not guarantee entry into heaven. It is faith in Jesus as our Lord and Savior that will allow us to join Him in His Kingdom after death. Every time we celebrate the Eucharist, we partake of Christ by faith. "...Every time we celebrate the Eucharist, we tell the story of God's saving love for his people. We make memory of the redemptive, life-giving love of God that culminated in the life, death and resurrection of Jesus...." (Catholics on Call, Online Retreat 2006 Christ the Bread of Life)

With love,

MASS INTENTIONS

WHOEVER
EATS THIS BREAD
WILL LIVE
FOREVER

It is a long standing tradition in many different faiths and cultures to remember, and even venerate, someone's deceased relatives and friends. We keep alive the memory of our deceased relatives and friends by remembering them in our prayers.

Through our prayers, we can also continue that spiritual and loving connection we had when they walked this earth.

Remembering someone in our prayers (whether alive or deceased) is particularly important to us as Catholics. Because the celebration of the Mass is the highest form of worship, the practice of having a Mass "offered" for an individual, deceased or living, or for a particular intention, is an excellent way of bringing our intentions to God. This is a long standing tradition in the church. It is also a devotional practice whereby we keep alive the memory of our loved ones. Through this practice we can maintain that loving bond between ourselves and those whom we love. A Mass can be offered on the anniversary of death or on a person's birthday, or at any time. You may also have a Mass celebrated for someone who is ill, in thanksgiving and for special intentions for family and/or friends.

Take the time to have a Mass celebrated for your loved-ones. Simply stop by the rectory, call us at 201-434-0798 or send an e-mail to: secretary@olcj.org.

STEWARDSHIP

“Watch carefully then how you live, not as foolish persons but as wise...” - Ephesians 5:15

A wise person recognizes that all we have comes from God. A wise person thanks God every day for all His many blessings. A wise person realizes that God has blessed us for a reason and He wants us to be partners with Him in His work here on earth.

“COLOR RULES” EXHIBIT AT THE DRAWING ROOMS

“Color Rules” is an exhibition engaging the expression, experience and impact of color. Curated by Anne Trauben, our nine gallery rooms feature painting, drawing, sculpture, photography, collage and installation by Alan Walker, Andy Wilhelm, Dana Kane, Ellen Hackl Fagan, Ellie Murphy, Glenn Garver, Marianne DeAngelis, Meg Atkinson and Roger Sayre. Paintings on paper by Doug Holst in The Tenth Room Gallery Shop. Color is described as the property possessed by an object that produces different sensations on the eye as a result of the way the object reflects or emits light. From meaning and symbolism of early Christian art, Impressionism, the Fauves and Color Field, etc., artists have been forever fascinated by color - and not just painters of course. Today is the last day to see the exhibit. Gallery is located at 180 Grand Street and will be open from 2-6 pm. For more information, call 201-823-9393 or email: victoryhall1@msn.com.
